

1.5 Job opportunities:

The B.Sc. Accountancy programme of the department exposes candidates to numerous high and middle-level job opportunities in many establishments particularly those of government, industry and statutory organizations. A graduate of Accounting Department with a good B.Sc. could rise to the position Accountant General or Auditor General of the Federation of State , or Director of Budget. A candidate who proceeds to acquire the professional license aftergraduation also has the additional advantage of setting up his own accounting firm.