BIOGRAPHY (EDUCATION/PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE/PROFESSIONAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS)

I, Mrs Ani Jane Ifeoma a native of Ebe in Udi Local Government of Enugu State studied French/ Education at Eha-Amufu College of Education graduated in 1990 with two distinctions and two Credits. I later went to University of Nigeria Nsukka , still studied French/ Education and came out in 1998 with Second class lower Division. Afterwards I went back to the same University where I bagged my Master of (M. A) in French (Comparative Literature) in2013. In taught French at Queen's School Enugu from 1992 to 2013 when I was made the Co-ordinator of Centre for French Teaching and Documentation (CFTD) till 2015 when I was employed byEnugu State College of Education Technical (ESCET) to lecture French in the Department of Primary Education Studies as Lecturer 111. As a Co-ordinator I got a Scholarship to travel to France in 2014 for a one month program called BELC. Few months after my return from France I got employed in the GST Unit of this Noble institution to lecture French as GST to the 100 level Students only in SecondSemester but as luck may have it no sooner have started than was the English department was opened and then I was absorbed into the Department from where I started having courses to teach both in the first and second semesters.
